

WE ARE PROUD OF OUR UNIVERSITY AND OUR PRESIDENT

Congratulations ATSU President Jack Magruder for a lifetime of service and leadership in higher education – and for your distinguished recognition in Ingram's Magazine.

One university – five schools

Arizona School of Dentistry & Oral Health
Arizona School of Health Sciences
Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine
School of Health Management
School of Osteopathic Medicine in Arizona

ATSU Points of Pride

1. We are home to the founding school of osteopathic medicine, KCOM, established in 1892.
2. Our newest school, SOMA, is the only medical school in the country to integrate physical diagnosis with ongoing didactic curriculum, which blends the Case Presentation and Harvard-Cambridge models.
3. We gave Arizona its first dental school – ASDOH.
4. We graduate 20 percent of all American Indian physician assistants in the United States through ASHS.
5. SHM is the first to offer a 100 percent online Doctor of Health Education degree program with integrated dissertation.
